

Lessons From A Few Trees

Matthew 21:18-22

18 Early in the morning, as he was returning to the city, he was hungry. 19 Seeing a lone fig tree by the road, he went up to it and found nothing on it except leaves. And he said to it, "May no fruit ever come from you again!" At once the fig tree withered.

20 When the disciples saw it, they were amazed and said, “How did the fig tree wither so quickly?”

21 Jesus answered them, “Truly I tell you, if you have faith and do not doubt, you will not only do what was done to the fig tree,

but even if you tell this mountain, ‘Be lifted up and thrown into the sea,’ it will be done. 22
And if you believe, you will receive whatever you ask for in prayer.”

Lesson from the Fig Tree:
Jesus makes us able to display true life at all times.

Lesson from a Literary Tree (Psalm 1): Jesus is the Fruit-bearing Blessed One in whom we believe.

Lesson from a Figurative Tree (Rom 11): Be humble and grateful for being grafted into the family of God by faith.
